

Wisconsin Technical College Systemwide General College Courses

General College courses are systemwide courses that are designed to provide specific “brush-up” academic content to prepare students for success in targeted General Education courses. These General College courses are Aid Code 10 credit courses and financially aidable, but do not count as credits toward an Associate degree in the Wisconsin Technical College System.

Instructional Area 831 – Communication Skills

- Intro to College Writing (3 credits) – 10-831-103

Instructional Area 834 – Mathematics

- Pre-Algebra (3 credits) – 10-834-109
- Elementary Algebra with Applications (3 credits) – 10-834-110

Instructional Area 835 – College Success

- Study Skills (1 credit) – 10-835-103
- College Success (2 credits) – 10-835-104
- College Success and Study Skills (3 credits) – 10-835-105

Instructional Area 836 – Natural Science

- Prep for Basic Biology (2 credits) – 10-836-113
- Prep for Basic Chemistry (2 credits) – 10-836-133
- Prep for Anatomy & Physiology (2 credits) – 10-836-123

Instructional Area 838 – Reading

- Intro to College Reading (2 credits) – 10-838-104
- Intro Reading and Study Skills (3 credits) 10-838-105

For course descriptions, summaries and WIDS course files, please see the General College section of the WIDS repository, <https://wtcsystem.wids.org>.